Receivable Recovery Partners named a "2009 Best Places to Work in Collections"

Fountain Square Company Receives National Honor

INDIANAPOLIS (September 30, 2009) – Receivable Recovery Partners, LLC, has been named as one of the Best Places to Work in Collections for 2009. Winners were chosen based on an evaluation of each company's workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics, as well as results of an employee survey.

The Best Places to Work in Collections program was designed to identify, recognize and honor the best places of employment in the collections industry by insideARM.com and Best Companies Group. To be considered, companies had to fulfill a number of eligibility requirements and were required to be a collection agency, collection law firm or vendor to the collection industry.

"We are honored to be selection from collection agencies across the US for this prestigious honor", said Toby Spreitzer, President and CEO of Receivable Recovery Partners. "We know our people are our greatest asset and we will continue to educate and support them in their careers and in their interactions with our clients. We believe that today it's about more than just collecting debt; we are looking to make a difference for our healthcare clients. This honor supports our goal of raising the standard in the industry."

More than 5,000 companies from across the country entered the two-part survey process to determine the Best Places to Work in Collections. The first part consisted of evaluating each nominated company's workplace. The second part consisted of an employee survey to measure the employee experience. The combined scores determined the top companies and the final ranking. Best Companies Group managed the overall registration, survey and analysis process and determined the final rankings.
